White Plains, Kentucky

For the next 30 days, I have decided to offer the majority of my stock of Merchandise at cost, only a few exceptions. The first place, we need the CASH; second place, we are going to make a decided change in our business, also building, and in order to fix the house up for the future business have decided to offer the bulk of our stock at ABSOLUTE COST.

As the work can't be done with all the goods in the house that I now have, I intend to make this EVERYBODY'S STORE. One that you can't help from talking about, and if +can only get you to talk about me your neighbor will know about this, THE RACKET STORE, the future store of White Plains. NOW THIS IS NO HOT AIR PROPOSITION. I intend to close this present stock out in the next 30 days.

Prices will be GALORE HERE, through the month of November. Sale is NOW GOING ON AND WILL CONTINUE throughout the entire month. Tell the good news to all your friends, and come and bring your neighbors with you. I am sure that you will never have another opportunity like this again soon. Opportunities like this do not come every day. In this lot will be offered $1,000 worth of Shoes, and everything else that you usually find in a general store.

THINK IT OVER

EITHER MR. TAFT OR MR. WILSON

WILL BE ELECLED

PRESIDENT

In Kentucky, the Progressive Party will fall far short of securing the required number of votes to qualify it as a political party within the provisions of our election laws. This is indicated clearly by their insignificant registration, and by the reports received by the Committee of conditions throughout the State.

Since the middle of September, the DRIFT HAS BEEN STEADILY TOWARD THE RE-ELECTION OF MR. TAFT and is INCREAS-ING IN FORCE as the election draws near.

The reason for this is apparent to anyone giving the matter a moment's consideration. CONTINU-OUS EMPLOYMENT IS AT HAND for all those who desire to find it and REMUNERATIVE PRICES REWARD THE PRODUCERS. THIS MEANS COMFORT FOR THE PEOPLE GENERALLY and accounts also for the absence of political excitement.

The VIOLATION OF THE MOST SACRED TRADITION OF THE REPUBLIC; opposition to a THIRD TERM as President for any man, and the ECONOMICAL THEORIES and VITAL CONSTITUTIONAL CHARGES involved in the candiacy of MR. Roosevelt, are issues of extreme importance, but the fact that HIS DEFEAT IS CONCEDED BY ALL, except his most ardent supporters, has to a large extent eliminated them from consideration.

THE RACE BEING BETWEEN THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES; our confidence that the judgement of the people will lead them to RE-ELECT MR TAFT is based upon the record; THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BELIEVES IN, AND WILL ADHERE TO THE PROTECTIVE TARIFF SYSTEM.

THE DEMOCRATIC RARTY BELIEVES IN TARIFF FOR REVENUE ONLY, which means FREE TRADE, and, if placed in power, will, if true to their platform declaration, seek at once to wipe out and DESTROY ALL ELEMENTS OF PROTECTION in our tariff laws. Their platform declaration of 1892 and 1912 on this question are identical and, in both, a PROTECTIVE TARIFF IS DENOUNCED AS UCNONSTITUTIONAL.

In 1892 the Democratic Party was successful upon this issue and they tried their hand on the tariff and the resultis well remembered. DISTRESS, MISERY, WANT AND ACTUAL STARVATION WERE GENERAL THROUGHOUT THE LAND and continued until the election of McKinley and the restoration of the Republican Party to controle. They, of course, try to explain and absolve themselves of responsibility for the result, but they cannot deny actual conditions as they existed during their complete controle of the executive and legislative branches of our government.

Now the country prospers. Business prostration in any line exists no where within its borders. The affairs of the government have been economically and efficiency administrated. The government's controle of trusts has been strengthened. A surplus remains in the treasury after the payments of all expenses. The trade of the country is larger than at any other period of its history.

A Republica n administration with Mr. Taft at its head, has been and is now in charge. We know what we have in 1912. We know what we got as a result of 1892.

Under the one prosperity and penalty, under the other disaster and distress.

The only safe course lies in holding on to that which is good. Danger lurks in a change. No risk except in a change. Then why take that? A vote for Roosevelt is worse than wasted; it is a vote to take the risk.

So, Mr. Voter whatever may be your occupation, think it over, while you yet have time, and let your vote Square with your judgment.

Roosevelt Delegates for Taft

'Letter of Wm. Heyburn, President Belknap Hdw & Mfg. Co., and Roosevelt Delegate from Louisville to the Republican National Convention.

Leuisville, Ky., October 25, 1912

Mr. Chas. L. Scholl, Louisville, Ky.

My Dear Sir:--

Referring to your question as to what candidate I have decided to vote for, for President, at the November election, I would say that I am going to vote for Messrs. Taft and Sherman, whom I regard as the regular nominees for the Republican Party.

l attended the Chicago convention as a Roosevelt delegate, but from my observation and experience there I consider it was fortunate for the country and for the Republican Party as well, that Mr. Roosevelt was not nominated I became convinced that Mr. Roosevelt's candidacy was the result of personal ambition and not for the purpose of furthering any particular politics or principles. I believe that with Mr. Roosevelt's co-operations it waspossible for the Progressive element of the Republican Party to have nominated Governor Hadley or Senator Cummins, to have made any changes in the platform that might have been desirable to have revised the rules so as to elimate the authority of the National Committee, where even such authority as they had might be abused, and more important than all, to preserve the integrity and usefulness of the Republican Party.

Mr Roosevelt's followers, by reason of their passionately stormy methods, used where no principles could possibly be involved with the same vehemence as where principles might be involved, destroyed my confidence in their level-headedness and good judgment. I was well prepared by what I saw at Chicago, for the lack of the sense of proportion that lead to the action of Roosevelt supporters in undertaking to establish the Progressive Party.

As for myself, I can see no hope of accomplishing progressive measures by this procedure and grave danger of weakening the influence of the Republican Party for good along many

The Republican platform relative to Tariff politics. appeals to me with peculial force. I have had the advantage of knowing something about the working effect of tariff schedules and tariff policies on business, and, without feeling intolerant of the opinion of other men, am satisfied that the republican policy of protection is for the general interest as well as general prosperity. I believe that if Dr. Wilson is elected President, he will probably call an extra session of Congress, to revise the Tariff, and immediately business will staguate. The demand for the products of the farm and factory will drop off, and the necessary accompaniment to this will be a falling market. If the tariff schedules are so made as to threaten American producers with serious competition from abroad, where the price of labor is so much lower than here, the condition of stagnation will be permanent, or until the policy is changed. If the change made by such a special session not such as to bring the American consumer into competition with the foreign producer. I can see no logic in changing the tariff, hence the program of the Democratic Party becomes a futle one.

No one who is thoughtful can doubt that if the Democratic Party is elected to power by a large majority, as some claim it will be, it will be a very tadical free trade, or, "Tariff for revenue only" Party. No honeyed pre-election phrases of Dr. Wilson, delivered in Pittsburg to placate the voters in the district, where protection sentiment is supposed to be extensive, will change this fact. Those who vote for Dr. Wilson, should do it with the full knowlege of what it means, and should not vote for him unless they believe in the tariff for revenue only, which is the real meaning of the Democratic platform and the real intintion to the Demo

Yours very truly, WILLIAM HEYBURN.
